Personal Statement

To help us discern how participating will both serve you and align with the program's intended purposes, please include a personal statement with your registration on no more than two pages, by answering the following questions:

- What is calling you to this retreat opportunity? Why are you interested in participating?
- How do you hope to benefit personally and/or professionally?
- What is the setting in which you currently do your work (tells us about your nonprofit)?
- What question do you currently hold about your life and/or vocation?

Cost and Payment

The cost of the retreat (including two nights of lodging in a single room, meals and program and material costs) is only $600. A $200 deposit is required with your application. The balance will be due upon your acceptance into the program. Deposits will be returned due to space limitations. All other costs are being subsidized by the Fieldstone Leadership Network.

Registration

To reserve a space in this retreat, please send a $200 deposit, payable to the Fieldstone Leadership Network, along with your application form and personal statement. Applications are due by June 1, 2018. However, as space is very limited, you are encouraged to register early.

Send your completed application, personal statement and deposit to:
